

Prepare your mortgage servicing for 2025 and beyond

Get game-changing value from Cognizant's unique blend of strategy, implementation and delivery services.

Optimize your end-to-end lending

Wherever your mortgage servicing organization is in its modernization journey, Cognizant's licensed residential mortgage practice is ready to help you achieve your goals.

From business-led strategy and operational efficiency to customer experiences, cost reduction and streamlined loan workflow, our team provides end-to-end solutions and outcomes to sharpen your mortgage servicing. We partner with your lending organization to:

- Improve the customer experience. Ensure that your mortgage products and solutions stand out in a crowded market. Through a modern platform and the right mix of technology and automation, you gain an intuitive customer experience that builds loyalty and increases customer retention.
- Increase cost optimization and margin improvement. Create a business-led strategy that charts a successful digital journey backed by data-driven solutions, automation accelerators, and technology modernization.
- Expand market share. Increase your mortgage portfolio through advances such as AI/ML models that identify borrowers with a propensity to pay, as well as improved customer loyalty and increased retention.
